

ON Leadership Conference—Request to Speak

Fall of 2019, Providence, Rhode Island

8 am to 12:30 pm

The ON Leadership Conference, presented by Dirigo Leadership Consulting and national leadership activator Tim Hebert, will assemble change-champions and intentional leaders to explore the power of Transitions, arming attendees with the frameworks, perspectives and methodologies to handle these profound moments of change with heightened centeredness, confidence and control.

Are you a disruptor who has propelled your career forward by embracing the unknown, cultivating grit in the face of hardship and enacting—as well as reacting to—profound change? Then we want to hear from you!

We are accepting proposals for two types of speaking slots:

- 30-45 Minute Keynote Presentation
- Lightening Talks—creative presentations that are less than 10 minutes and follow a TED-like, Ignite-like, story-teller format, etc.

We want to hear from you if...

- The thought of speaking on our conference theme of “Transition” elicits a profound emotional, cerebral and physical reaction from you
- You have built a career around embracing the unknown and uncertainty of Transitions, allowing these Transitions to serve as catalysts for your leadership journey
- Leadership, to you, is not about titles and seats on the corporate ladder; rather it’s about changing mindsets so that each and every one of us can lead from a place of confidence and centeredness
- Your career has been anything but “typical,” OR...
- Your career has been “typical” but the story you will tell will rock our minds

Who you will be speaking in front of...

- 150-200 change-champions from the greater New England region
- Business leaders, solopreneurs, entrepreneurs, leadership aficionados, change-makers
- Individuals committed to shattering archaic views of leadership models and frameworks

What we need from you...
